DETAILED ACTION

Oath/Declaration

The oath or declaration is defective. A new oath or declaration in compliance with 37 CFR 1.67(a) identifying this application by application number and filing date is required. See MPEP §§ 602.01 and 602.02.

The oath or declaration is defective because:
Non-initialed and/or non-dated alterations have been made to the oath or declaration. Specifically the fifth named inventor has non-initialed alterations in the declaration. See 37 CFR 1.52(c).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-2, 7, and 14-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Dhaemers (US 5,546,678). Dhaemers is considered to disclose the claimed combination dryer comprising:

a housing 10;

a tumble dryer 119 mounted in the housing, which implies a working area within the housing;

a cabinet dryer 11 built into the housing;

Art Unit: 3749

a tumbler door 18 or 19 for providing access to the tumble dryer which implies an access door to the working area;

a cabinet door 19 or 18 for providing access to the cabinet dryer;

a control panel 72 on the housing to control the operation of the tumbler and cabinet dryers; and a seal 110 on the cabinet door sealingly engaging the control panel when the cabinet door is closed. Dhaemers is also considered to disclose the claimed upright surface 124 and back panel 14.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 3-4 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dhaemers. Dhaemers is considered to disclose the claimed invention, as discussed above under the anticipatory rejection, except for the claimed bulb-type seal or French style doors. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice to claim a bulb-type seal or French style doors, since those claimed embodiments are not discussed to have any patentable priority over the seals or doors found in the prior art.

Claims 5-6, 8-13, and 17-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dhaemers in view of Didlick et al. (US 6,279,357). Dhaemers is considered to disclose the claimed invention, as discussed above under the anticipatory rejection, except for the claimed cabinet door inner surface with a lip to direct condensation away from the control panel. Didlick is considered to disclose a cabinet door inner surface with a lip to direct condensation away from the control panel at column 3 lines 10-64. It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to combine the claimed cabinet door inner surface with a lip to direct condensation away from the control panel as found in Didlick with the teachings of primary reference, Dhaemers to provide a moisture protection barrier for a control panel by placing a lip seal on a cabinet barrier. Furthermore, Dhaemers in view of Didlick is considered to disclose the claimed invention, except for the claimed bulb-type seal or French style doors. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice to claim a bulb-type seal or French style doors, since those claimed embodiments are not discussed to have any patentable priority over the seals or doors found in the prior art.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-25 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over the claims of copending Application No. 10/406,814. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the copending application recites shelves such that the present application could be construed to imply that shelves are an obvious variation to the presently claimed cabinet dryer.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
